

STEP 1

Is it packaging? <sup>1</sup>

No

then you pay no waste management contribution

Yes

STEP 2

How many disposable units <sup>2</sup> does the packaging have? And what type of disposable unit is it?

Go through the following steps for each disposable unit.

STEP 3

Does more than 50% of the disposable unit by weight consist of plastic?

Yes

This disposable unit does not qualify for the Plastic Fee Modulation Scheme 2.0. Please view our website for tips. <sup>3</sup>

No

STEP 4

Does the disposable unit contain Post-Consumer plastic recyclate?

Type of disposable unit

% recyclate compared to total plastic weight share of disposable unit

Contact sensitive

10%

Non-contact sensitive

20%

Yes € 0,10

From 2025
€ 0,20

No

STEP 5

Does the disposable unit comply with the criteria?

Contains no interferants

- Silicones/rubbers
- Oxo-degradable
- PVC or PVdC
- Target material contains no PETG

Hasn't been in direct contact with:

- Silicones
- Latex
- Paint
- Cement

Dimensions of rigid plastic

Larger than 3 cm and less than 5 litres of content.

Dimensions of flexible plastic

Larger than 3 cm.

No

Yes

This disposable unit does not qualify for additional Fee Discounts View our website for tips. <sup>3</sup>

STEP 6

Does at least 70% of the disposable unit by weight consist of the following materials?

Target material

- Rigid PET
- Rigid PE
- Rigid PP
- Rigid PE/PP
- Flexible PE
- Flexible PP
- Flexible PE/PP

Yes

€ 0,10

Yes

Is the target material colourless or white?

€ 0,10

Yes

Is the target material mono-material?

€ 0,10

Yes

Do labels, sleeves and printing comply with the criteria? <sup>4</sup>

€ 0,10

Yes

Is the disposable unit 'Optimal-recyclable' according to the KIDV- recyclecheck? <sup>5</sup>